

HAVE GOT – HAS GOT

Structure

Uses

Exercises

+

I/You/We/They have got

He/She/It
Has got

Have got > 've got Has got > 's got

—

I/You/We/They have not got

He/She/It
has not got haven't got hasn't got

?

Have+I/we/you/they+ got

Has + he/she/it + got

Short answer
Yes, S have/has
No, S haven't/hasn't

Use
have got has got to talk about possessions

- With the subjects I You We They use have got
- I have got a sister.
- We haven't got a house.
- They have got a lot of homework.
- Have you got a car?
- With the subjects He/She/It use has got
- She has got a bike.
- Has he got a dog?
- The cat hasn't got any toys.

Use
have got has got to describe people and temporary state

- To describe people
- I have got fair hair.
- She has got blue eyes.
- He has got long hair
- To indicate temporary states
- I have got a cold
- She has got fever
- We have got a problem.

Exercise Use the correct form of
have got

- She _____ two sisters.(+)
- We _____ any problems.(-)
- _____ they _____ a car? (?)
- I _____ a pet.(+)
- He _____ a ticket.(+)
- _____ she _____ blue eyes? (?)
- The cat _____ any food.(-)
- _____ your sister _____ a child? (?)

Answer Key

- She has got two sisters.(+)
- We haven't got any problems.(-)
- Have they got a car? (?)
- I have got a pet.(+)
- He has got a ticket.(+)
- Has she got blue eyes?(?)
- The cat hasn't got any food.(-)
- Has your sister got a child? (?)

Writing

- What have you got in your room? Write 5 sentences.