

COMPARATIVES

We use comparative form of adjectives to make comparison between two things. We use the comparative form in two ways.

-er

More
+
adj.

1 OR 2 SYLLABLES

If the adjective has one or two syllables;
we add -er to the end of the adjective to
make comparrison.

old
+
-er
older

Alex is 20 and I am 25. I am older
than Alex

2 OR MORE SYLLABLES

If the adjective has two or more syllables;
we use more + adj. to to make comparrison.

expensive
>
more
expensive

This car is more expensive than
mine.

IRREGULAR ADJECTIVES

Some adjectives have irregular comparative forms.

good

bad

far

Comparative

better

worse

further

SUPERLATIVES

We use superlative form of adjectives to make comparison between three and more things. We use the comparative form in two ways.

the
adj+est

the
most +adj

1 OR 2 SYLLABLES

If the adjective has one or two syllables;
we add -est to the end of the adjective to
make comparison.

old + est
the
oldest

Alex is 20, Tom is 22 and I am 25. I am
the oldest of us.

2 OR MORE SYLLABLES

If the adjective has two or more syllables;
we use the most + adj. to make comparison.

the most
+
crowded

Istanbul is the
most crowded
city of Turkey.

IRREGULAR ADJECTIVES

Some adjectives have irregular superlative forms.

good

bad

far

better

worse

further

the best

the worst

the furthest

AS ADJ. AS

We can also use as adj as to make comparision

Ankara is not as
crowded as
Istanbul.

Alex is not
as tall as
me.

This car
seems as fast as the other one.

COMPERATIVE AND SUPERLATIVE ADVERBS

We use comperative and superlative forms of adverbs to make comparision between the actions

He drives fast but I drive faster

She drives more slowly than me

She studies harder than anyone.

PRACTICE

Compare Tom and Jerry

TOM

Age: 5
Height: 50cm
Weight: 5 kgs

JERRY

Age: 6
Height: 10cm
Weight: 100grs

PRACTICE II

Compare two cities in your country.

London is more expensive than Newcastle.

Istanbul is the most crowded city in my country.

